

Auxiliary's 'Fractured Follies' Opens Friday For Two Night Run

Local Talent
To Flicker Across
The Footlights

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

OCTOBER 8, 1967

B-1

Janet Rice, auxiliary president, helps Judy Melville with costume

(Press-Herald Photos)

Can Can Girls: Kathy Lewis, June Morris and Wilma Kimble

Curtain is 8:30 next Friday and Saturday evenings at the Torrance High School auditorium for the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary's "Fractured Follies," proceeds from which will go to the auxiliary's pledge to the new hospital. Talent from civic, service and social organizations throughout the South Bay have banded together to present the spectacular under the direction of Calvin Swanson, New York producer. Frank Myers is serving as orchestra conductor for the productions. Tickets may be purchased from any auxiliary member or at the doors.

June Morris, dancer, listens to Frank Myers pound out a beat

Torrance Woman's Club Opens Year

With Their President

A catered luncheon and delightful musical program began the 1967-68 club year for the Torrance Woman's Club at its clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave., Wednesday. From the left, Mmes. Alfred L. Raboch, new member, R. E. Moffitt, club president, and Richard Rankin, transferee from the Junior Woman's Club, gather around the guest artist, Clarence Treat, who explains his 12 string guitar, with which he entertained in a program of American folk songs.

Greet New Members

New and prospective members, interested in the activities of the city's oldest federated Woman's Club, were welcomed at its opening meeting of the year. Here, Mrs. Robert Winship, membership chairman standing, greets Mrs. A. P. Barker, new member, and Mrs. F. P. Adams, prospective member. Other new members, not pictured, are Mmes. Wayne Kimble, A. J. Spangenberg, Gordon Gmur and D. O. Bliven. (Press-Herald Photos)